

New managing director at Aumund

Jörg Hoffmann, 42, has been appointed as member of the management board at Germany-based Aumund Fördertechnik. He was previously a member of the management board at Schade Lagertechnik in Herne, which is part of the Aumund Group. In conjunction with Franz-Walter Aumund and Dr Volker Brandenburg, he will assume responsibility for the operational side of the business. Before joining the Aumund Group, he worked in senior executive positions in the USA, Canada and China.

In his new position at Aumund Fördertechnik, Hoffmann sees his primary task as expanding the internationality of the company, which already operates on a global footing. His attention above all will focus on intensive cooperation with subsidiary companies in sales, purchasing and service as well as in opening up new markets. www.aumund.com
